Homework: 3.4(d) Jointing - Knock Down Fittings

3 Processes, techniques and specialist tools

3.4 Uses, characteristics, advantages and disadvantages of the following permanent and semi-permanent joining techniques in order to discriminate between them, select appropriately and use safely:

d) jointing – traditional wood joints, knock-down fittings (including use of specialist tools).

Research

Using written answers and labelled diagrams / images research the 'knock down fittings' listed below. Explain:

1. What is Flatpack Furniture?
2. What are the Pros and Cons of Flat Pack furniture?

Knock Down Fittings:

1. Barrel Nut and Bolt
2. Block Connector
3. Corner Plate
4. Cam and Dowel Fitting
5. Cabinet Hinges

Sources of Information:

1. From AGS Logins (AGS website) - AGS Useful Software List - Design Engineering: Focus on Series... from the menu open 'Focus on KD Fittings and Flat Pack Furniture'
2. https://technologystudent.com/joints/kdown1.htm
3. https://www.technologystudent.com/joints/kdown2.htm

Barrel Nut and Bolt:

Block Connector:

Corner Plate:

Cam and Dowel Fitting:

Cabinet Hinges: